

ABOUT ADELAIDE YOUTH ORCHESTRA

Established in 2001, the Adelaide Youth Orchestra is a thriving and strong musical and educational force for young Adelaide musicians. AdYO is committed to musical excellence and the showcasing of emerging South Australian musicians between the ages of 8 and 25.

Each week the organisation caters for over 170 young musicians in three ensembles, Adelaide Youth Orchestra, Adelaide Youth Sinfonia and Adelaide Youth Strings.

AdYO offers young musicians the opportunity to flourish in a vibrant and exciting musical environment, developing orchestral, musical and team skills with their peers. They are encouraged to perform to the highest standard, fostering lasting friendships and making great music. Each orchestral member has the opportunity to work with professional tutors and teachers from the Adelaide Symphony Orchestra, the Elder Conservatorium of Music and other professional institutions in SA.

AdYO is developing significant relationships with members of SA's music and arts community. In addition to the core artistic program, we're now seeing a healthy exchange of ideas and collaborations with theatre groups, fusion bands and composers.
